

THE CHARACTERS

THE FRIENDS

DEJI (MALE)

18

The science geek with a private investigator alter-ego. Shy and naïve, he is an extremely brilliant student who comes from a poor family and had his fees paid by his community

SADE (FEMALE)

18

The pretty tomboy with a passion for dancing (actors must prepare a dance solo). Determined and defiant, she speaks pidgin most of the time, but is also capable of speaking impeccable English (actors must be able to speak fluent pidgin and impeccable English)

FRANK (MALE)

19

Rich boy with all the trappings of wealth and huge musical dreams. He lives alone in a big house rented by his parents, and becomes the 'landlord' of his friends.

TOBI (MALE)

18

Good-looking sporty type, studying the wrong course. Natural footballer (actors must be prepared to display excellent football skills) and instinctive lady-killer, unfortunately, not too serious about his studies

THE CHARACTERS OTHERS

BRENDA (FEMALE)

19

Pretty girl, retaking a course in Deji's class. Smart and opportunistic, she uses her looks shamelessly to get what she needs

BELLA (FEMALE)

18

Strong willed, pretty geek in Deji's class. She has her fun but is nobody's fool and says it as it is when she has to

BENJAMIN (MALE)

21

Good-looking dancer (actors must prepare a dance solo) who has the hots for Sade. Believes his own press, so has an bloated sense of self importance

ANDREW (MALE)

25

The young lecturer who falls for Sade. Seemingly easy going, Andrew harbours a brilliant criminal mind

MIKE (MALE)

21

The member of the football team who is benched for Tobi and develops a hatred for him. The hatred worsens when he discovers his girlfriend has the hots for Tobi
