INT. V.C.'S OFFICE - DAY

The door opens and Frank walks in, looking around as the man behind the desk drops the intercom. This is the V.C.

FRANK
Good afternoon sir

V.C
Frank DaSilva, sit down

Frank obeys, carefully taking his seat, his look filled with trepidation

V.C (CONT'D)
Your father is an honorable man and I didn't realize you were his son until recently

Frank shifts in his chair, nervous

V.C (CONT'D)
Or maybe I choose to believe that the son of such a man cannot do the things that you have been accused of

The V.C stares at him, letting his words sink in

V.C (CONT'D)
Where were you that night?

FRANK
I... I was with my friends

The V.C holds his gaze a moment then reaches for the intercom. He speaks into it

V.C Let them come in

He drops the intercom and continues to stare at Frank who wears an uncomfortable look.

He looks in the direction of the door as it opens and is surprised to see Deji, Tobi and Sade walk in

V.C (CONT'D)
These friends I believe?

Frank turns to look at the V.C as he responds

FRANK
Ye... Yes sir!

The V.C smiles. It is obvious he knows he is lying

V.C
These students were brought to me because each of them claim to have been with you that night.

Frank wears a confused and relieved look

V.C (CONT'D)
I know you are lying

Sade, Tobi and Deji exchange looks but keep straight faces

V.C (CONT'D)
But I am willing to let this go because like I said before, your father is an honorable man...
(looks in Deji, Sade & Tobi's direction)
... and if these three are willing to risk their education for you then maybe there's something a little honorable about you as well.

Frank looks at his friend, tears forming in his eyes. He blinks back the tears

V.C (CONT'D)
You will be wise to refrain from any activity that can put you in this kind of position again
(a beat)
You may all go. I'll clear this up at the Senate!

Frank swallows with relief as he gets to his feet and follow his friends out
