

Character Bible

‘Actors may audition for a maximum of two roles’

DIKE

Dike is in his early thirties and a successful financier. He is good looking, intelligent and an all-round score for most single girls. He is easily manipulated most especially by women.

TUNDE

Tunde is in his mid-twenties, ambitious and intelligent computer geek. He is a hopeless romantic and because of this has fallen into an open relationship with his long time sweetheart, Esther.

WALE

Wale is in his late twenties-early thirties. He is your typical Lagos big boy aka Yoruba demon. He has been there, done that with almost every and any girl that has a pretty face and a nice figure.

DAVID

David is in his late twenties. He is a young and ambitious hustler with great future prospects. He’s got a good job working as Uncle Ken’s executive assistant, a title he gave himself. He pretends to be who he is not.

HANS

Hans is in his early thirties. He is a (White) Dutch born native who has lived in Nigeria for a number of years. He is popular in the Lagos social scene especially amongst the young female student types.
